

Make it a Good Day!

The shortest month of the year will bring about one of the biggest new things in our Grange communications arsenal. Good Day, a hard-copy quarterly publication will hit mailboxes this February. A subscription only based magazine costing $14 per year will include great features, the latest information about the Grange, contests, programs, benefits and more. This publication is being made possible by “grant money that has been obtained to provide the start-up funding,” stated National Grange President Betsy Huber in her Master’s Address at the 150th Annual Session of the National Grange.

In addition to the magazine being a communication and advertising tool for Granges, Huber hopes, “you will use it as a membership tool to show all the great things Granges are doing and the various opportunities people have as a member of the organization.”

The Good Day magazine will be self-supporting through advertising and subscriptions. Granges can submit stories for approval and pay for advertising in the magazine.

Don’t forget to fill out your Good Day Magazine subscription cards and get them submitted before the first issue. You don’t want to miss a copy.
